MEMBERSHIP

Membership of the Institute of Parks and Recreation (Singapore) – IPR(S) - offers you many unique benefits. As a member of the leading Singapore professional body for the parks and recreation industry, you will be entitled to a broad range of member benefits:

- IPR(S) conducts the IPR(S) Annual Forum which addresses current challenges and future trends in the industry. Leading experts in parks and recreation are invited to present their views and engage participants in discussion. Members attend the IPR(S) Annual Forum at subsidized rates.
- Professional Development Talks and Visits are conducted throughout the year to keep members abreast of topical issues and developments. Members receive discounts for attending.
- As a benefit, members receive free-of-charge the leading industry professional publication: Parkviews Journal. This IPR(S) journal has a professional development focus, providing information on the latest Singapore and international issues and developments in the industry.
- The IPR(S) Web Site - <http://www.singaporeparks.org> - is a quick and accessible method for members to access information about the services of Parks and Leisure Australia. The conference pages on IPR(S) Web Site highlights important events in the Asia Pacific and around the world.
- A regular IPR(S) Newsletter keeps members abreast of new developments in the industry.
- IPR(S) is proactive in discussing and formulating policy on specific industry issues and projects. Members are encouraged to engage in these activities and advocacy.
- Members of IPR(S) are represented on regional and international bodies; specifically the International Federation of Park and Recreation Administration (IFPRA). IPR(S) holds the Chair for the IFPRA Asia Pacific region.
- Membership of IPR(S) also offers many opportunities for professional, charities and social networking.
- Certificates are issues to members of IPR(S) in recognition of their professional proficiency in the field of parks & recreation.
- Our events may assist in fund raising for charities.
